

3rd Annual Historic "L" Station Tour

Sponsored by:
Illinois Historic Preservation Agency

In Cooperation With:
www.Chicago-L.org Chicago Design Consortium

What: A tour of the rich history of the Chicago's transit system. In addition to traveling to various historic stations aboard a privately-chartered train, participants are provided with lectures and tours that highlight the system's architecture, engineering, and both planning and operational history.

When: Sunday, November 4, 2001, 9am-2pm

Where: Meet at historic Quincy station in the Loop on the Outer Loop (Brown Line) platform

Cost: Adults - $30 in advance, $35 the day of the tour
Age 17 and under - $15

Stations: Among the historic locations to be visited this year are:

- Quincy
- LaSalle/Van Buren
- Armitage
- Francisco
- North/Clybourn
- 13th Street subway-"L" Connector
- Garfield
- Racine/63
- Conservatory
- Ashland/Lake
- ...and more!

Charter Train: The tour has chartered a train of 2400-series work motor cars, the 2nd oldest cars currently in service on the "L"

For more information about the tour, email Graham Garfield at ggarfiel@chinet.com.

To reserve a spot on the tour, call Kent Haag of IHPA at (312) 814-1409 or email him at haaghistory@yahoo.com.

Above: Stations scheduled to be visited (top: Conservatory, middle: LaSalle/Van Buren, bottom: North/Clybourn)

Below: Type of train to be used

