

6th Annual Historic "L" Station Tour

Sponsored by:
www.Chicago-L.org

What: A tour of the rich history of the Chicago's transit system. In addition to traveling to various historic stations aboard a privately-chartered train, participants are provided with lectures and tours that highlight the system's architecture, engineering, and both planning and operational history. This year's tour will include the two oldest stations on the "L", as well as a host of others from the late 19th and early 20th century.

When: Sunday, October 17, 2004, 10am-2pm

Where: Meet at Quincy station, in the Inner Loop (Orange/Purple lines) station house, in the Loop

Cost: $32 per person

Checks are to be made out to Graham Garfield, with "L' Station Tour" on the memo line of the check.

Stations: Among the historic locations to be visited this year are: *

- Quincy
- LaSalle/Van Buren
- Madison/Wabash
- Garfield
- Racine/63rd
- Ashland/63rd
- Ashland/Lake
- Conservatory

* Station itinerary is subject to change without notice. Check www.Chicago-L.org for the latest station roster news.

Charter Train: The train consist to be used on the tour is still to be determined.
